Covid-19 Statement

We are taking measures to ensure that the wellbeing of our guests and employees is of paramount importance during the global outbreak of Coronavirus (COVID-19).

We are closely monitoring the official advice given by government on the steps we are undertaking. We are vigilant in ensuring all of our staff have been fully briefed and are constantly updated on the ongoing situation.

We take great pride in maintaining the highest standards of cleanliness and hygiene across the premises at all times.

- Sanitiser is available at all entrance points •
- Tables and chairs are sanitised after each guest visit •
- All staff are trained in new health and safety procedures and are wearing PPE •
 - Menus are single use •
 - Tables are a minimum 2m apart •

Government states that it is compulsory for all customers to wear a face mask whilst inside our premises.
(with the exception of being seated at your table)

Please be alert and maintain a safe distance from other guests.
